Spy: Espionage in Australia opens

This month a new exhibition has opened featuring personal experiences of secret agents and the curious history of espionage and counter-espionage in Australia from Federation due to present day.

See genuine spy equipment, surveillance images and candid interviews with ASIO officers. There's also a connection to James Bond right here in Ipswich with the inspiration behind the books Sidney Cotton growing up at Hidden Vale Homestead and his ashes reside in the Tallegalla Cemetery.

There's also two cool trails for the kids to do when they visit.

Images available on request.
