

What's new in the Heritage City this August...

Galvanized comes to town

Galvanized a festival of heritage is on this month in Ipswich. Galvanized is the City of Ipswich's festival of heritage, showcasing the best heritage experiences and events Ipswich has to offer across 11 days from 1 to 11 September.

<https://www.discoveripswich.com.au/galvanized/>

Contact Jodie Richter 3810 7929

Restaurant and Catering Awards

Dovetails Restaurant has been nominated as a finalist in the Restaurant and Catering Awards for Excellence in the Contemporary Australian Restaurant – Informal category. The restaurant won the award last year. "We are proud to represent Ipswich in such a prestigious award program, showcasing the best of what our community has to offer and encourage people to make the journey out west.

Spicers Hidden Vale's Homage Restaurant is also a finalist, in the Premium Dining category.

Contact Torsten Werner (Dovetails) 32829076

Contact Cameron Brooksby (Spicers) 5465 5900

Top gifts for Father's Day

This year ditch the socks and jocks and surprise dad with a gift he'll love. From V8 Race and drift experiences to beer tasting at Ipswich's craft beer bars we think there's something he'll love in this list.

Read the story here: <https://www.discoveripswich.com.au/make-dads-day-with-these-great-fathers-day-ideas/>

Content is free to use.

Prohibition Party

The Workshops Rail Museum is once again gearing up for their annual Prohibition Party. The party is being held on Saturday September 3 from 6pm-10pm with all the glitz and glam of the roaring 20s. Grab a bootleg brew, play poker and hit the dance floor.

Contact Sian West 3432 5105

Chilli Festival returns to Ipswich

The chilli festival is back for another year. Organisers are prepping the spices and getting the chilli recipes ready for a day to celebrate all things hot. The chilli festival will be held on September 10 from 11am-7pm at the Ipswich Showgrounds. There will be live music, dance performances, a freestyle dog troupe display, car and motorbikes and charity pillion rides.

Contact info@mychillifestival.com.au

Any questions or famil enquiries can be directed to Carly Morrissey carly.morrissey@ipswich.qld.gov.au 3810 7712 or Michael Williams
Michael.williams@ipswich.qld.gov.au 3810 7448